I. Review Revised ILOs and Make Recommendations

SSPC reviewed the revised ILOs and asked the question, where do Student Services see themselves in the ILOs?

Critical Thinking – chose second choice
Creativity – chose third choice
Communication – chose third choice
Computational Thinking – chose second choice

Below are the suggested changes:

Critical and Creative Thinking

- Select, evaluate, and use information to solve problems, investigate a point of view, or support a conclusion, ~~or engage in creative expression.~~ or...

II. Review Student Services SLOs

SSPC will resend their new or current (if continuing with the same SLO) SLO to the VPSS office by Friday, Oct. 11.

II. Discuss Hiring Process Timeline and possible positions to move forward (Fall or Spring)

Many Student Services programs, which are categorically funded, do not know their budgets in time to participate in the Spring Hires and feel it does not benefit Student Services.

IV. Review Redwood City Pledge

Jenny Castello presented the Redwood City Together Pledge.

SSPC had several questions:

Has Cañada ever signed a pledge like this before?

Does the Redwood City Together group want anything more from Cañada, such as money, etc.?

How can the pledge be changed to be more inclusive or broader?

Would the Redwood City Together group provide workshops, dialogue or presentations at Cañada?

Do we need Board approval to approve?
