Senator Moody Metry begins his presentation by stating that he went to three sessions in the duration of the trip. The first session that Moody attended was entitled “See, Believe, Do”. This session was geared around those that attended. The leaders were taught how to set goals to have the best result. The importance of time management was highly emphasized upon. The second session that Moody attended was called “Character Counts”. This session showed the attendees the core values that most great leaders have in common- some of which being honest, respectfulness, and fairness. This particular session was mainly geared around showing the attendees how to be the best leaders possible. The final session that Moody attended was called “Your future starts now”. The man holding the session explained the six pillars that are necessary for one to be the best leader they can. The Pillars are as follow.

1. Listen to the voice of distinction in your life
2. Do not let your ego get in the way
3. Take the most difficult jobs early on in your life
4. Do the work when no one is looking
5. Improve your communication skills
6. Leadership is about gratitude and giving

Moody shares that all of these things were very eye opening for him and he felt very inspired after he attended the session. Moody goes around the room and asks all of the attendees what the word “leadership” means to them personally.

Senator Moody Metry motions to allocate two more minutes for this item

Senator Jithan Tennakoon seconds the motion

Absent from meeting

Inter-Club Council

Vice-President Evelyn Valenzuela informs everyone that the next ICC meeting will be held on the following Tuesday. She also tells everyone that there will be a “giving tree” toy drive on campus in the coming weeks. She shares that the drive will be hosted by the ASCC and Phi Theta Kappa- There will be a friendly competition between clubs, and the club that donates the most toys will be rewarded. (ASCC and Phi Theta Kappa will not be eligible for the prize).

Programming Board

The members of ASCC discuss the upcoming event, “Las Posadas”. They decide that they need to delegate members to be on the planning committee for the event. Members are asked if they would like to chair the meetings or be members of the committee. Senator Shawn Martin asks if there is any way that two people could co-chair the committee, and is told that is a possibility.

Result- The committee will most likely consist of 5 members: (With some guidance from Claire Sharif) Senators Nicholas Kaplun, Alexandra Wildman, and Shawn Martin will participate as members of the committee and Senator Omar Gonzalez will co-chair the committee with Secretary Andee Liljegren.

Student Life and Leadership Manager: Misha Maggi

Advisor Misha Maggi shares that when the delegates are gone, CTE is happening and they will need some help on the 20th. She informs those in the room that there will be a protest happening in Redwood City coming up- protestors will be trying to raise awareness for some children that have recently gone missing in Mexico.

Misha tells the ASCC members that the annual spending on helium is $700. She would like to either sacrifice this to save more money, or charge/ ask for donations from those that use the helium frequently. She then reminds the ASCC members that they can receive three units for doing their regular ASCC work if they are in need of some extra units.

Leader of the Week: Claire Sharif

Executive Officers

a. President: Javier Santos

Javier Santos shares some options for the upcoming trip to Washington D.C.. He shared the experience from the last trip to D.C. and options to improve it for this year. He would like to take the time while the AS is in D.C. to go to some museums to brush up on and learn more about the history of America.

Advisor Misha Maggi shares that with budget limitations we will be able to send 3 to 4 students on the trip. She shares the criteria for each individual’s application letter.
