I learned...

- ❖ Million Dollar Meal
- ❖ Networking
- ❖ How to Network
- ❖ Random Acts of Kindness
- ❖ Dance Floor Theory
- ❖ Conflict Management

... I can go on and on...

But, the most important thing we ALL learned from the conference was...

CONFIDENCE

Being able to go in front of a crowd, and being yourself.

GO LINA!

Networking and receiving advice from students of other colleges.

Becoming like a family despite any differences.

Friendships became closer.

Why?

You can learn a lot, but learning or gaining confidence is more than just sitting down in a conference and absorbing information. It is your transformational experience from student to student leader.

Goal

Because of this, I would like us to be confident in ourselves so that we could act as a family and able to tackle on more challenges.

Let's RAK

Random Acts of Kindness

Lets make someone's day and offer
Free Hugs with Cody!

“A full-body hug stimulates your nervous system while decreasing feelings of loneliness, combating fear, increasing self-esteem, defusing tension, and showing appreciation.”

Clothespin Tag

EVERY student leader is given a pin with their initials. They are going to pin it on someone's clothing or backpack. The point of the game is to pass the pin around with a quote to cheer students up.

Bringing Happiness

TAKE
WHAT YOU NEED.

HOPE.
FAITH.
PATIENCE.
COURAGE.
UNDERSTANDING.
PEACE.
PASSION.
HEALING.
STRENGTH.
BEAUTY FREEDOM.

There are so many things our students face that are either boring/challenging and have become disinterested so lets make it our job to bring back entertainment to our campus.

There is endless acts of kindness.

So, let's start this semester.
